

Statistics of the Year 2018: Winners Announced

< Previous

The winner of the international prize was 20 DEC 18 the statistic that 90.5% of plastic has never been recycled. The winner of the UK prize was the statistic that 28.7% of all electricity produced in the UK on 30th June 2018 came from solar power. There were also eight highly commended statistics. Read the press release here.

Jen Rogers, who was on the judging panel, spoke about the Statistics of the Year on the Today Programme on 18/12/2018 and you can find the entire programme here (scroll to 2:37:27) and was also on