

2011: "Solemn commitment" by those UN members attending a conference, to "strive" for adequate water and sanitation for all in "least developed countries" by 2020. Conference outcome endorsed by UN General Assembly.

2015: World leaders at the UN -
"Children and young women and men...will find in the new Goals [adequate water/sanitation by 2030] a platform to channel their infinite capacities for activism"
